GENEVA, Sept. 13.—The American syndicate which has taken over the management and one-third interest in the S400,000,000 holdings of the Archduke Frederick of Austria and his son, Archduke Albrecht, will receive no duke Frederick of Austria and his son, Archduke Albrecht, will receive no help from the League of Nations in its efforts to obtain the estates taken fongary, according to indications here.

Furthermore, delegates from these governments to the Assembly of the League now in session here have privately expressed the view that their government would not release these holdings without compensation.

The Hapsburg holdings are under the control of the General Real Estate and Trust Company of Geneva and the properties consist of estates in Italy, Rumania, Poland, Czecho-Slovakia, Austria and Hungary. They include rich mineral and forest lands and great industrial plants.

Addition

From Washington it was learned yesterday that investigation of the conduct of the Mail Company by the Mayers has not been ended. Judge Charles Mayer and his son, Captain Francis Mayer apparently are not worrying about the outcome of the audit of the company's accounts. opinion that the board has no power to reduce the tonnage rates without specific authority from Congress.

Should the board grant the request of the Green Star Line, forty-one other pioneer shipping companies which purchased bottoms from the government when the market was high, undoubtedly will seek similar concessions, and the board will make no decision until all angles of the situation are studied, Chairman Lasker indicated.
